

LEADERSHIP SALON SOCIETY — MEMBERSHIP POLICY

Leadership Salon Society is a curated community designed for thoughtful leadership connection, conversation, and growth. Membership provides access to experiences that may include events, discussions, mentorship, and evolving resources such as workshops, trainings, digital materials and networking.

Membership Eligibility

Membership is subject to review and approval. Leadership Salon Society is a curated community, and we reserve the right to decline or discontinue membership when necessary to maintain the integrity, values, and experience of the community.

Membership & Conduct

Members are expected to engage with professionalism, respect, and intention. This is a high-trust environment grounded in thoughtful dialogue and diverse perspectives. All members are expected to uphold community standards and contribute to the quality of the experience.

Billing & Term

Memberships renew automatically on a [monthly/annual] basis unless canceled prior to the next billing cycle. Billing occurs at the start of each period. Founding Member rates and recognition remain in effect as long as membership remains active and in good standing. If membership lapses or is canceled, founding status may not be reinstated.

Access & Benefits

Benefits vary by tier and may include access to events, private experiences, and resources. Access is reserved for the individual member, is non-transferable, and may be subject to availability for limited-capacity experiences.

Events & Participation

Experiences are intentionally curated and may require advance registration. Members are encouraged to RSVP thoughtfully and honor commitments to maintain the integrity of the experience.

Content & Materials

Members may receive access to resources such as guides, trainings, or digital content. These are provided for personal and professional use only and may not be reproduced, distributed, or shared outside the community.

Confidentiality

Members are expected to treat shared conversations, personal experiences, and professional insights with discretion and respect. Information shared within the community should not be disclosed outside the community without permission.

Professional Guidance Disclaimer

Information, discussions, resources, and member contributions are provided for educational and professional development purposes only and should not be considered legal, financial, medical, or other professional advice.

Cancellations

Memberships may be canceled at any time and will remain active through the end of the current billing cycle (if a paid membership). No partial refunds are issued.

Membership Review

Leadership Salon Society reserves the right to revoke membership if community standards are not upheld, in order to protect the integrity of the space.

Updates

Policies may be updated periodically as the community evolves.

Tier Notes

Founding Members receive recognition, priority access to select experiences, and locked rates. Other tiers receive access aligned with their membership level.
